

Annex 2 Estimated Traffic Generation

2.1 The application site is abutting Kiu Hing Road. Having mentioned that the site is intended for shop and services, traffic generated by the proposed development is extremely insignificant especially that the proposed development is intended to serve the village type development zone where the site falls within. It is expected that almost all of the customers will arrive the site on foot.